Precious
As we look among us
and see this wondrous sight, We're reminded how much you loved us, how much you gave to life.

And though you may have left us to journey the way back home,
We know you'll always with us,
We'll never be alone.

You left behind so many treasures - wisdom, joy and love,
That all of God's creations know You're with Him up above

For Jesus gave His life with love so that we may carry on,
And once our work is finished,
He lovingly brings us home.

Life's Journey

Order of Worship

Pastor Jewell A. Baker, Presiding

Annie Mae Blunt Oliver was born on January 19, 1925, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Reverend and Mrs. Samuel and Addie Blunt. She received Christ at a young age and was baptized into the faith by her father. Raised in a loving home, she received her formal education through the local schools of Duval County.

The skills that Annie Mae acquired through the tutelage of her mother prepared her for employment in the domestic field. As a young lady she began her lifelong career as a domestic housekeeper in high demand. Annie Mae, affectionately called "Sister," met and married Ezekiel Oliver, and to this union four children were born, two girls and two boys.

Later in life, Sister Oliver united with First Baptist Church under the pastorate of Reverend Homer Lindsey, where she worshiped for several years. Sister Oliver was an avid reader and loved to cook. Her family's favorites included any of her gourmet meals that included crabs, shrimp or pork chops.

On Thursday, January 10, 2019, nine days before her 94th birthday, Annie Mae Blunt Oliver's name was called, and she answered, leaving this world behind for her new home in Glory. She was preceded in death by her parents, Reverend and Mrs. Samuel Blunt; her husband, Ezekiel Oliver; sons, Charles Oliver, Sr., and Robert Ripley; grandson, Bishop Clarence Baker, Jr.; granddaughter, Annette Oliver; and son-in-law, Clarence Baker, Sr.

Left to treasure her legacy are her loving daughters, Connie Oliver-Baker and Geraldine Oliver-Thomas (Thomas); grandchildren, Sharon Baker-Pitchford, Phyllis Baker, Kimberly Baker-Daise (Lester), Canaan Baker, Charles Oliver, Jr. (Janice), Felicia Ripley and Averice Ripley; great-grands, Claron Baker-Walker (Lasalle), Ronisha Joseph, Keith Joseph, Corey Horace and Brian Daise; great great grand, Zaccheus Baker; daughters-in-law, Mary Ann Oliver and Ella Ripley; granddaughter-in-law, Pastor Jewell Baker; a very good friend/employer, Linda Edwards; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
